Construction Update - Week of May 11, 2015

Construction is continuing on the Flamingo Corridor Improvements project. Please see construction updates below.

Howard Hughes Parkway to Paradise Road

Ongoing sewer work will continue with 24-hour traffic control restrictions. From 9 p.m. - 5 a.m. Sunday through Thursday, travel lanes will be restricted to one lane eastbound during night work. Two travel lanes will be open during non-work hours. Temporary bus stops and/or delays associated with these lane closures that may impact stops in this area.

Temporary bus stops and/or delays associated with these lane closures that may impact stops in this area.

Fort Apache Road to Durango Drive - Eastbound

Beginning Monday, May 11, eastbound travel will be restricted to a single lane from Fort Apache to Durango for bus stop construction activities. These restrictions will be in place 24-hours a day for approximately two weeks. Temporary bus stops and/or delays associated with these lane closures that may impact stops in this area.

Rainbow Boulevard to Durango Drive - Westbound

Potentially beginning Tuesday, May 12, westbound travel will be restricted to a single lane from Rainbow to Durango for bus stop construction activities. These restrictions will be in place 24-hours a day for approximately two weeks. Temporary bus stops and/or delays associated with these lane closures that may impact stops in this area.

Transit Route 202 Detours / Shuttle Service

Due to the long-term construction project on Flamingo Road east of Boulder Highway and resulting delays, route 202 will be shortened and a shuttle will cover the service lost by the shortened route. This change went into effect April 24 and will continue for approximately three months.
